

Performance Management- Results Based Management (RBM)

Scope & Objective of Training

This workshop is intended to give an introduction to the strategic control strategy of Results Based Management (RBM). Results' definition, features, monitoring and measuring, and learning from results are topics to be discussed. How RBM will affect the decision making process and continuous improvement efforts will also be discussed.

Targeted Audience

Industrial, Quality, Operations, Production Engineers/Managers

Training Venue

1st International Conference on Industrial, Systems and Manufacturing Engineering (ISME'14)

Investment 75 JDs

Training Date & Time

November 12th 2014, 9:30am – 3:30pm

Trainer

Eng. Widad Qutishat

Workshop Outline

1. Alternative Approaches to Managing Performance & Introduction to RBM
2. What is a Result?
3. Monitoring and Evaluation
4. Key Performance Indicators
5. Results Features
6. Measuring Results
7. Decision Making System
8. Learning from Results- Continuous Improvement
9. Aligning Team and Individual Performance towards Achieving Results, & Leading Results- Based Management
10. Conclusions.